This is a detailed topographic map of the Engstlensee region in Switzerland. The map shows the Engstlensee lake in the center-right, surrounded by steep, forested slopes. Key features include:

- Mountains and Peaks: Henglihorn (2588m), Schwarzhorn (2639m), Tannenstock (2444m), and various other peaks like Vogelbüel (2072m) and Seehublen (1875m).
- Towns and Villages: Engstlen, Seehublen, Engstlenegg, and Engstlenegg. Other nearby locations include Tannalp, Zylflucht, and Herrenhubel.
- Water Bodies: Engstlensee, Zylfluchtbach, and various smaller streams and ponds.
- Infrastructure: Roads, railways, and a cable car line (Seilbahn) are visible.
- Topography: Contour lines indicate the steep slopes and valleys. Elevation markers are provided throughout the map.
- Legend: A legend in the bottom left corner identifies symbols for roads, railways, and other features.

A blue line highlights a specific area near the lake, possibly indicating a boundary or a specific route. The map is oriented with North at the top.
